A WONDERFUL PALACE.

The Czar Has One That Was Built by Catherine the Great.

Just outside of St. Petersburg the Czar has a palace known as Tsarskoe-Selo, which was built by Catherine the Great. It is of vast extent, and plated with gold. It is said that nearly $1,000,000 worth of bullion was used in doing the work, and when, owing to the dampness of the climate, the plating began to peel off, Catherine ordered it to be painted over. Some Russian speculators wanted to scrape off the old gold and melt it over again, and offered Catherine the sum of $500,000 for permission to do so, but she sent them to prison for insulting her with the proposition, and covered the palace with yellow paint.

This palace has rooms walled with amber. It has a parlor covered with lapis lazuli, and the walls and ceiling of one drawing room are of the finest tortoise shell. It contains 500 apartments, and the ballroom covers nearly half an acre. Its floor is of wooden mosaic, and there are other rooms in which the finishing is in ivory, bamboo, and in bronze.—Drake's Magazine.

The New Naval Rifle.

The secretary of the navy yesterday fixed the caliber of the proposed new naval rifle at 23.4, his action being based on the report of the naval board, which has had the subject under consideration for some time. The report, after reciting the advantages of having a uniform caliber for both the army and navy, so as to make ammunition interchangeable between the two services, concludes that this consideration is completely outweighed by the greater velocity, flatter trajectory, and consequently greater range afforded by the smaller caliber.

The next point to be settled is the important matter of magazine breach mechanism. To this end a circular is now preparing inviting inventors, and especially Americans, to submit their inventions for trial by a board of experts to be appointed for the purpose.—Ex.

Visiting the Islands.

Among the through passengers by the Miowera is Mr. J. G. Carter-Troop, who is returning from a visit to Australia. Mr. Troop is a prominent journalist and is connected with the Canadian Pacific railway in the capacity of advertising agent. During his stay in Australia Mr. Troop was presented with a number of valuable curios, and received marked courtesies from members of the Colonial government, being a guest on one occasion of Sir George Dibbs, premier of New South Wales. He will spend some time in Honolulu in the interest of the Canadian Pacific railway, and no doubt will gather data for some descriptive writing concerning these islands.

Japanese Laborer Suicides.

A Japanese laborer named Ya-mookawa Akimatsu committed suicide by hanging yesterday. His dead body was found hanging in Wilder's lumber yard on the water front. The deceased had been out of employment for some time, which evidently caused him to commit the rash act. He leaves a wife and two children. A coroner's jury, composed of Japanese, rendered a verdict "That the said Akimatsu came to his death on the morning of the 3d of October, 1893, in Honolulu, Oahu, by strangulation, caused by his hanging himself by a rope around his neck."

For Waikiki.

The little naphtha launch belonging to Pat Hughes, and captained by Chas. Lynn, has been engaged to tow boats of native fishermen out to Diamond Head and leave them there. The launch will make weekly trips to the Head and returning will bring in the fish to the market. In order to prevent seas from shipping into the boat the deck has been covered with canvas.

When the Century Will End.

The first century of the Christian era began with the year A. D. 1 and extended to the end of the year 100; the nineteenth century began with 1801 and ends December 31, 1900, the year completing the 100-year period giving name to the century.—Boston Globe.

A. Simpson, proprietor and man-arrested; the former on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, and the latter for selling liquor without a license. Lycurgus was released on $250 bail, furnished by Mr.

Chas. Creighton. It was generally reported a few days ago that these arrests would be made, and the delay in serving the warrants was not occasioned by any investigation on the part of the marshal in the matter.

charged with the murder of the Japanese policeman at Ewa plan-

WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD, Oct. 3: 10 P. M.
—Weather, clear; wind, fresh N.E.
The steamer Claudine is advertised to leave this afternoon for Maui.

The Japanese steamer Aikoku Maru, Furukawa, commander, and George Edwards, sailing master, will leave some time today for Yokohama and Kobe. Two European and 65 Japanese (52 men and 13 women) steerage passengers will take passage for Japan by her.
Ogura & Co. stated yesterday that they expect the Aikoku Maru from Japan again, to arrive early next year. She may possibly bring up another cargo of Japan coal.

The steamer James Makee leaves at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Kapaa, Kauai.

The Hawaiian steel bark Andrew Welch, Captain E. P. Drew, arrived yesterday, nineteen days from San Francisco, and anchored off Waiki-iki. Pilot Macaulay went out to see that she was securely anchored.
Through the courtesy of Pilot Macauley, Captain Drew's report was furnished to this paper as follows: Sailed from San Francisco on September 14. Had calms the first four days out; thence experienced light trades. When off Molokai on Monday night encountered very bad weather. The Andrew Welch has five passengers and a full cargo of general merchandise consigned to C. Brewer & Co. The tug Eleu will go out to tow her into port this morning.

The schooner Moiwahine which has been lying out in the stream for several months was hauled alongside the old custom house wharf yesterday. Today she will leave for Hamakua.

The barkentine Irmgard, Capt.
Schmidt, was detained until nearly 3:30 o'clock yesterday before she got away for the Coast. She took 9162 bags sugar weighing 1,229,896 lbs, valued at $38,996.66. As there were 5000 bunches of bananas at the P. M. S. S. Co.'s wharf for the steamer Miowera, an effort was made, but failed, to ship some of the bananas to the Coast instead by the Irmgard, hence the delay of five hours in her sailing. The Irmgard sailed at 3:30 o'clock, pilot Shepherd taking her out.

The barkentine Tanker, Capt. F.
A. Dow, is expected to leave tomorrow for San Francisco.

The steamer W. G. Hall will come down from the marine railway on Friday or Saturday morning. She will leave on her regular route to windward ports on October 20th, and the steamer Mikahala will be laid up for several weeks for some repairs.

Jackson, the boat black says, that he will leave for Chicago by the barkentine Discovery next week.
